Over a twelve month period we have been using the Chafo for our chafing dish requirements. We have identified a cost saving in excess of 40% through the elimination of wastage of part-used gels/wicks.

In addition to this, every hour of fuel in the Chafo is used and provides substantially more heat at a lower cost.

Relative to traditional gels and wicks the Chafo is cleaner, significantly safer and service levels from Ecoburner are consistently high.
